An excellent opportunity to acquire a productive block of agricultural land extending to approximately 61.2 acres (24.77 hectares), situated in the sought-after farming area of Harray. The land is all classified as Region 1 and is currently laid down to permanent grass, making it well suited to livestock grazing and a range of agricultural enterprises. The holding is divided into 10 fields, all of which are fenced and benefit from a water supply, providing practical and efficient management for farming operations.

Included within the sale are the associated land entitlement payments, offering an additional benefit to prospective purchasers.

This represents an opportunity to purchase a substantial area of quality agricultural land in a desirable farming district.
